

MADhurst Treasure Hunt

Start: Market Square

Finish: South Downs National Park Visitors Centre/Memorial Hall

(Or do it in reverse - start at SDNP and finish at the Market Square)

Solve the clues to find a building or structure in Midhurst and write down the answers.

1. In times of old these were used to punish bad behaviour - now almost forgotten but for the information sign. When was I last used?
Location: _____ Answer: _____
2. Every year on a Sunday in November we stand here to pay our respects. What sits on top of my pillar?
Location: _____ Answer: _____
3. Since Tudor times I have been used for many things - I used to be a store of books for people to borrow, now I house officers who represent our town. What days & hours am I open?
Location: _____ Answer: _____
4. This Celtic saint's house has people who look after your teeth. How many golden plaques are displayed by my door?
Location: _____ Answer: _____
5. I used to sell bread but now I sell tasty Eastern food -but the sign of my bakery still sits above my windows. What does it say?
Location: _____ Answer: _____
6. A blue plaque by the door of this provider of food and wine tells how a famous science fiction writer used to live at this address? What years did he live here?
Location: _____ Answer: _____
7. Above the shop that sells all you need for horses and outdoors sit the picture of a former Queen and Empress. How many countries are listed around her portrait (list them)?
Location: _____ Answer: _____
8. Tired and thirsty horses could once drink from here - but now it is full of pebbles. What words are written on my side?
Location: _____ Answer: _____
9. Before mobile phones we used to use this to make a call. What am I used for now?
Location: _____ Answer: _____
10. This former school hall of learning has some Latin words inscribed above its entrance. What are they?
Location: _____ Answer: _____

On Saturday 6th August you can collect Treasure Hunts sheets and get your answers checked at either the MADhurst Unplugged in Market Square 11-2pm or at the SDNP Open Day 12-3pm. Collect stickers and small prize for all completed forms from either Market Square and/or SDNP.

